

Dr. Lois Jarman has been a world language educator for more than fifteen years. She has taught English, French, Spanish, and Latin on a secondary and post-secondary level. Lois received her bachelor's degree from Goucher College, her master's degree from Hood College, and her doctoral degree in second language acquisition from Shenandoah University. She currently is the Director of the Intensive English Language Program at Shepherd University. Lois has been a Frederick Memorial Hospital Auxiliary member and volunteer for more than seventeen years. She is a mentor with Woman to Woman Mentoring and is pleased to now be a member of the Commission for Women. Lois resides near Brunswick and has lived in Frederick County for the past thirty years.